ONONDAGA COUNTY, NY

Contents of Black Book No. 44b

Prepared by George Richard Chamberlin

54 pages

The name Onondaga is in honor of the Onondaga India tribe that occupied this area in an earlier time.

In 1794, Onondaga County was split off of Herkimer County.

This book consists of lists of public records in Onondaga County, NY. This document is not intended to be a transcription or a summary of contents. This Table of Contents was prepared for the purposes of assisting researchers in locating Chamberl ancestors in this particular Black Book. The original Black Book is available to researchers at the New England Historic Genealogical Society, in Boston, Massachusetts.*
