Chamberlain Key Hole

A QUICK PEEK AT THE WCGS
FROM THE DESK OF THE
CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Annual Meeting, Latest Info

Fall 2016 WCGS Meeting Notes

Ms. Judy Chamberlain volunteered last year to arrange the meeting for September since she lives in the area. The meeting is scheduled for Monday September 12th from 9:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. in the Lake Superior Room at the Michigan Historical Center. Judy has arranged for a tour of the Archives of Michigan at 2:30 p.m. for those who would like to do this. The Archives of Michigan was listed as either #5 or #6 in the nation for genealogy information as they have not only records for Michigan but other places as well. Judy does need to know how many people will be doing the tour so she can let the staff know. She is working on something for lunch, but there again she will need to know approximately how many people to expect. Judy can be contacted via email at: Judytreas@comcast.net

Previously we published:

Judy also provided information on the area for those of us who have never ventured to Lansing. She reported- As to lodging, the best area will be in the Eastwood Town Centre and surrounding area, which is classified as East Lansing. This is a large shopping center with hotels and restaurants. There is a Holiday Inn Express and a Hampton Inn nearby. It is about 15-20 minutes from downtown Lansing where the Historical Center is located. Let Judy know if you need further information.

The nearby restaurants include Smokey Bones, Claddaugh Irish Pub, Max and Irma's, PF Chang, Mitchell's Fish Market, Bravo (Italian), Tony Sacco's Pizza, Champs, and Applebee's. There are a number of restaurants/fast food places in downtown Lansing, but these can be quite busy during the lunch hour as a lot of State employees eat there.

One of the Goal's in the formation of the World Chamberlain Genealogical Society (WCGS) was the creation of a membership-friendly organization that would enhance the exchange of information and experiences associated with the study of a common surname. Although members are scattered widely around the world, the WCGS serves as a center for facilitating and coordinating inter-communication, and as a repository for information useful to persons who wish to learn more about their own ancestry in particular and the history of the surname as well. We welcome all who share this interest to join us in documenting the surname and its many variant spellings.
