A QUICK PEEK AT THE WCGS
FROM THE DESK OF THE
CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Happy Labor Day Everyone

Last Call- Fall 2016 WCGS Meeting

We are now one week from our annual meeting and we would love to see you. If you live within "Day Trip" distance of East Lansing, Michigan please consider joining us. There is no cost to attend and we have a number of your fellow researchers attending. This could be your opportunity to take a few bricks out of that wall. Discussing shared ancestors, DNA results, or simply exchanging ideas are possibilities. Simply contact Ms. Judy Chamberlain who volunteered to arrange our meeting since she lives in the area. The meeting is scheduled for Monday September 12th from 9:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. in the Lake Superior Room at the Michigan Historical Center (702 W Kalamazoo St) in downtown Lansing. At 2:30 p.m. a tour of the Archives of Michigan is scheduled. Judy does need to know how many people will desire lunch and/or the tour so she can let the staff know. Judy can be contacted via email at: Judytreas@comcast.net. Your RSVP is needed by Wednesday afternoon so all arrangements can be finalized. It is likely we will also gather for a group dinner on Monday evening. This can be finalized during the meeting.

Previously we published:

For those who may wish to stay overnight- Judy reported the best area will be in the Eastwood Town Centre and surrounding area, which is classified as East Lansing. This is a large shopping center with hotels and restaurants. There is a Holiday Inn Express and a Hampton Inn nearby. It is about 15-20 minutes from downtown Lansing where the Historical Center is located. Let Judy know if you need further information.

One of the Goal's in the formation of the World Chamberlain Genealogical Society (WCGS) was the creation of a membership-friendly organization that would enhance the exchange of information and experiences associated with the study of a common surname. Although members are scattered widely around the world, the WCGS serves as a center for facilitating and coordinating inter-communication, and as a repository for information useful to persons who wish to learn more about their own ancestry in particular and the history of the surname as well. We welcome all who share this interest to join us in documenting the surname and its many variant spellings.

The Web Site is still having issues and our web hosting company is working to solve the problems.

Social media has helped several of our members (and non members), connect with each other and share information. If you are on Facebook, you can find us at World Chamberlain Genealogical Society. It is an open group and anyone can join.

Facebook is also how we get quick, up to date, information about our activities to everyone as well as links to events of interest to our group.
